Reduced Admission Program

Heartland Latino Leadership Conference Reduced Admission Program

The Heartland Latino Leadership Conference, Friday, November 13, 2009, offers an opportunity for students and active community volunteers seeking financial assistance to attend the conference at a reduced cost $10 (standard registration is $125). Individuals interested in applying for this program must meet the following criteria:

- ✓ Must be a student in an educational institution or must be an active community volunteer seeking financial assistance
- ✓ Must be at least 16 years old by the conference date
- ✓ Must submit the Reduced Admission Program application by the October 16, 2009 deadline
- ✓ Submit any additional information requested by the HLLC
- ✓ Must abide by the program volunteer hours requirements
- ✓ Must attend an orientation session, place and time TBD

We have a very limited number of slots available for the Reduced Admission Program. Selected participants must contribute Ten Dollars ($10) towards the administrative costs of the program. Each confirmed individual will receive an acceptance email/phone call by October 30, 2009.

Thank you for helping make this opportunity known to any student or individual that is deserving of consideration. You can also find out additional information on this year's conference by accessing our website:
